“The opportunities of life are waiting for those with the courage to change. ”

Mr. Barravecchia earned his law degree from Golden State University and soon afterwards became a member of the California Bar in 2009.

During law school, Matthew was a T.A. for two years in a trial advocacy class that was taught by the former Chief Attorney at the San Francisco Public Defender's Office. After graduating law school, Matthew worked at the San Francisco Public Defender's Office as special-circumstances clerk, where he worked on several felony trials. Mathew's work experience includes investigating asbestos claims for vehicle manufacturers, vehicle-parts manufacturers, and suppliers of construction materials.

Mr. Barravecchia represents employers and insurance carriers in all aspects of workers' compensation.
