

Lauren Coleman Law Clerk

San Francisco 415-281-4477
lcoleman@hannabrophy.com

Lauren Coleman joined our San Francisco office in 2015 as a law clerk. She graduated from the University of California, San Diego in 2012 with B.A. in psychology and a double minor in law & society and Japanese studies. She then earned her J.D. in 2015 from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, where she served as an executive supervising editor for the Hastings Constitutional Law Quarterly, a board member for the National Moot Court Appellate Advocacy Team, and a teaching assistant for the Legal Research and Writing department.

Prior to joining Hanna Brophy, Lauren participated in employment law and general civil litigation clinics, and she worked in disability, employment, and family law fields. When she is not working, Lauren enjoys yoga, swimming, and reading good books.

awards & rankings

Best Brief, Tulane Sports Law Invitational Moot Court Competition, February 2015

National Quarterfinalist, Thomas Tang Moot Court Competition, November 2014

National Semifinalist, Whittier Juvenile Law Competition, February 2014

Education

Juris Doctor, University of California, Hastings College of the Law

B.A. Psychology, University of California, San Diego