UNDERGRAD

Alyssa Contreras is an associate attorney in our Orange office. Upon earning her Juris Doctor with an emphasis in criminal law from Western State College of Law, she joined Hanna Brophy in 2017.

Alyssa received her undergraduate degree from California Polytechnic University, Pomona, where she majored in psychology. During law school, she gained valuable experience interning at the Orange County District Attorney's office and was president of the Christian Legal Society on campus

In her spare time, she likes to take her dog to the beach, read, and spend time with her family. She stays green by driving a hybrid/plug-in car and recycling.
