UNDERGRAD

Cameron P. Haynes is an associate attorney in our Sacramento office. He joined Hanna Brophy in the fall of 2017. He represents employers and insurance companies in all aspects of workers' compensation.

Mr. Haynes graduated with his Bachelor's degree from the University of California, Davis and frequently appeared on the Dean's list. Thereafter, he graduated from University of San Diego School of Law. During law school, Mr. Haynes participated in a wide variety of endeavors. He was the managing editor the Journal of Climate and Energy Law, worked as a legal writing and research teaching assistant, competed in numerous national moot court appellate advocacy tournaments, and participated in trial advocacy programs. In early 2017, he was the regional runner-up in the American Bar Association's moot court tournament. Mr. Haynes also worked for a boutique personal injury law firm in San Diego, public interest organizations, and for two federal judges. After law school, Mr. Haynes returned home to the Sacramento region.

In his spare time, Mr. Haynes enjoys playing golf, running, volunteering in his community, and spending time with his family.
